From Editor's Desk

On behalf of Tantia University Journal of Homoeopathy and Medical Science. I am glad to present the Volume 4, Issue 1 of the journal. The journal established in October 2018 is now getting indexed by different academic forums. The aim of this journal is to meet the need for continuing medical education of the members, scholar and medical fraternity and to publish article of scientific excellence.

Second wave of Covid-19 outbreak has posed critical challenges for the public health, research and medical communities. Every outbreak provides an opportunity to gain important information, some of which is associated with a limited window of opportunity. Every medical system has something to offer in health care. AYUSH system of medicine used in prevention of Covid-19 in different part of country. The public want a safe, effective and rational treatment. There is need of integrated approach of all system of medicine against COVID-19 pandemic. Prevention is better than cure.

We would like to thank all members of the Editorial Board, reviewers and all authors for support towards this journal.
